THE BLUE STARS IN YOUR WINDOWS

Moderato $\text{♩} = 68$

Smoothly with expression

Use last 4 or 8 bars for an Introduction

All a-long fa-mil-iar streets, Ev-'ry where we go—

Shin-ing bright in broad day-light, Or, when the lights are low—

Most-ly One and some-times Two—, Some-times more and made of Blue

Kept up there with ten-der care, To keep our thoughts of You—

Chorus

THE BLUE STARS IN YOUR WIN—DOWS, Seem to say as we go by— Won't you

Handwritten guitar chords: A, D, A, G, G

do that lit-tle some-thing, that means much to a G I Guy— So

Handwritten guitar chords: G, C, G, C, E, G, F, C

here we go, to let you know, In a Spec-ial way for you— To show that all those Gals and Pals, keep think-ing of you, too— So we

Handwritten guitar chords: G, C, F, F, B, B, G, C, E, C

Handwritten guitar chords: G, G, G, G, C, G, G, G, G, G

bring this lit-tle mess-age, and we hope it brings some cheer-'Cause it's

"High-land With The Col-ors," For the Friends we hold so dear— So THE BLUE STARS IN YOUR WIN--DOWS, will be shin-ing bright each day— 'Cause You do your-selves so proud-ly, In That Good Old High-land Way— THE Way —

* Highland With The Colors is an Institution originated by the Farmers & Merchants Bank of Highland, Ill. One of its functions is the exchange of news between servicemen and the folks at home. Highland With The Colors was started before Pearl Harbor and by the beginning of the fourth war year had 800 names of uniformed men and women on the roster. Addresses are current and available to the public.
