CONDITIONS

1. Permission is granted for one—time use only, and only for the purpose specified on the reverse. Any subsequent or different use, including any additional copying of a digitized image, requires a new agreement.
2. Credit must be given for each item photographed or copied. The credit line is: Courtesy of the Madison County Historical Society (IL). In addition, the name of the author, artist or photographer, if known, must appear in the credit line.
3. The credit line must be legible, and must appear adjacent to published graphs; on the margin of unpublished photographic prints or negatives; adjacent to the text or image of other published or unpublished copies.
4. Applicant will donate to the Society one copy of any published work in which any of the items copied under this agreement appears.
5. The Society does not surrender the right to its own further use or publication of the items in this agreement, nor the right to permit others to do so.
6. The Society does not claim copyright of all materials in its collections. Applicant assumes all responsibility for securing reproduction rights and for questions of copyright and invasion of privacy that may arise in copying or in the use made of copies.
7. Applicant will not permit others to violate these conditions.
8. Any exceptions to these conditions must appear on this form, and will be part of the agreement.
